

Free initial psychological advice

Starting with the summer semester 2019 a new cooperation with the Hilfswerk Krems offers free initial psychological advice for KL students directly at Karl Landsteiner Private University. This service is absolutely anonymous and confidential! The experienced team offers advice on all difficult circumstances from anxieties, home sickness, depression, exam anxiety, eating disorders, violence to difficulties in housing and energy supply.

New at KL:

The Committee for Equal Opportunities and Advancement of Women has established an Equal Opportunities Service.

The Equal Opportunities Service is an advice service for all staff and students at KL who have experienced discrimination. The members of the Equal Opportunities Service team can be contacted with regard to discrimination issues. They provide advice and support if problems arise, acting with discretion and maintaining strict confidentiality.
